

How Can We Contact YOU During an EMERGENCY?

Monroe County Emergency Management has implemented a new emergency notification system to contact Monroe County residents and businesses during an emergency. The Monroe County Alert Notification System (MCANS) is designed to contact you in the method you would like to receive the message. They are:

MCANS reaches citizens immediately with critical information such as: on-coming severe weather, local disaster notifications, chemical spill information, evacuation instructions and the "All Clear" broadcast.
